Meet the Obliteracers: The best players of the galactic racing circuit. Prove that you are the most ruthless and in your sights, there is only one place to be—the top of the leaderboard. UFOs are the race’s true rulers. The Obliteracers have a strong eye for these pint-sized craft. They must be defeated and tamed in order to make the leaderboards. Once they have been conquered, you must use your smarts, intuition and the perfect timing to gain the fastest course and become the most ruthless racer. Features: * 3 new characters, each with their unique skills and abilities. * 3 new tracks to explore. * Official support for 64 controllers. * Extensive and varied AI opponents. * Ability to buy and sell items. * 40+ achievements. * Extensive online play. About Us: We are a group of enthusiastic individuals, who love to create and publish games with an original graphic style. Our games come in almost every genre you can think of, from RPGS and Action, to Puzzle games, Sports and Family games, our games offer something for everyone and can be enjoyed by players of all ages. We publish our games on major and specific platforms, which you can get here: Vanguard has a live, vibrant community that has been growing for a while now. You can find our players in the “Official” section of the website, just follow the links to the various social media platforms we’ve already set up. Join us there and experience the joy of playing live with us. We are currently in the middle of our first publishing campaign with a game called CrossRoads. Check it out. In conclusion, we have been in the games industry since 2005 and we are currently looking for opportunities to publish new games. If you have the opportunity to work with us we would be honored. If you do not, we are open to any kind of collaboration, be it promotional or gameplay assistance. We are looking for enthusiastic, creative and talented individuals. If you are interested in joining our team, please send us an email at: contact@carenin.com, and include the following: • A brief introduction about yourself. • Links to your profile on social media. • A link to your portfolio or the game you’ve developed. In Links E6 - Course Pack 2, you will play as one of six new golfers to earn special prizes. These golfers are: Golfer #1 - Golfer #2 - Golfer #3 - Golfer #4 - Golfer #5 - Golfer #6 - Each golfer has a partner selected by the developer. But they will have their own partner too, with their own special boosts in this installment of Links E6 series. Along with this "Golfer Master" feature, you will earn special Master Ball on Courses we have done previously. Some courses in the links pack includes a brand-new country club feature, where you have to swing for the red flag! Features of Links E6 - Course Pack 2: In Links E6 - Course Pack 2, you will get more variety! New country club feature added! Six new golfers added to the game! New unlockable special ball! New day type feature! Improved physics! Several new holes including one featuring a Shipwreck! New tournament feature! Friends leaderboard added! More clubs, items, and golfers! Improvements made to numerous items and golfers throughout the game! Improvements made to Iron, Clubs, and Ball physics! Improvements made to PGA balls and clubs! Improvements made to the Characters physics! Improved Mac version! Improvements to the audio engine! An additional GamePack is included: Introduction: Welcome to Links E6 Links E6 is a series of Role Playing Games which is also an online game, where you need to locate golf clubs in different places. That means you need to find all the items with the corresponding numbers by clicking or tapping on them. You will also have to make sure that you are using the correct item in the correct number, or your scores will be terrible. It can be tricky, especially when you don't know which item you need to find in which place. Luckily, you can get help if you have a companion. They will be available to guide you with their help. You can also ask them to hold items for you, so you don't have to do it yourself. At this time, you can only get help from the golfers you have unlocked, as there is no option for asking for help from your friends. Guide: Help and Tips

What's new in DRONE The Game:

media splash-boozled today, I'm back tomorrow with a fun video! Special thanks to Eanna O'Neill, Sharon Lee, Cara Santa Maria, and Cori Winters for their illustration work. "Everything has a retort. A counter. Sometimes it takes you 40 years to find one." - Darlene, "Rinnegan" _____

Lily Bridgestone didn't think she'd really slept at all, even after the night's rain poured through the window, soaking every inch of her too-thin mattress. She'd waited too long, had been pushed too far, and now it was time. Lily was waiting for the moment that would prove her. Waiting for her opponent. Natsuki Subaru had said he would meet her when he was ready. But Lily didn't care for anything other than the challenge. She knew what he was doing, what she was doing, but she didn't care. In truth, she was rather excited for the line between champion and pig. Even when Subaru said it was for her own good, she didn't believe him. Even when she agreed to it, she didn't realize how deep she truly ran. She knew this moment was coming. And she was coming for Subaru. But there was none other in the house that she was more prepared for than the Hidden Leaf's boy. There was, however, a glint of rage, of betrayal on her eye. He knew. He'd had enough training with the others to know. Lily knew that it was the same heartless, hate-filled tool that worked her evil, called her 'ranikunina' if only in her dreams, that worked her. The same one she'd thought held a part of her heart and defied her in the days prior to the barrier. Lily knew it was because of this, that she hoped to meet those soon. She hated Subaru, but she also resented him, wanted to exact her revenge. And this, this was her moment and she was going to take it with all she had, before her next match or premonitions proved him her enemy. She could picture the tete-a-tete even now, in her dreams. Pelcha and Beatrice.

MAZE SLIDER is an ice slide puzzle game where players need to slide their way to the level exit. This game is inspired by the ice slide puzzles that can be found in Pokemon. But this game expands on the idea with all new mechanics. The levels are varied from one and another. Some levels have more than one player to control at the same time and other levels have an enemy in it that follows you around. There are levels that will need your brain to be solved like the levels with trigger blocks that toggle doors on and off. Later in the game, you see blocks that can only be touched a certain amount of time so you have to think about how to navigate around. To make it even harder there are big saws you need to avoid and collect gems at the same time to make the portal appear. In this game you can play the levels solo or with 2 or 3 players on the same map at once. Arrows keys or touchpad controls gamepad scrolling The levels are different for each one and you can choose from a variety of them.

Daniel E. Quinn Daniel Quinn (born August 1, 1946) is an American author, filmmaker, and political theorist. He is the author of a series of New York Times best-sellers, including The Story of B, To Have or to Be, Animals Agenda, The Story of Human Flesh, Our Kind of World, and Wild Blood. At the same time he has been active in political movements for social justice and ecological sustainability. His most controversial views are centered around the issue of human cannibalism, which he affirms has been a taboo subject in most cultures since mythological times. Situational ethics Quinn's positions on just conduct have been strongly influenced by his concern for the ecosystems of the Earth: his ethics are guided by principles of harm avoidance, and by a hope that they will promote the collaboration of human beings with other species. His works combine fiction with a wide variety of theoretical and historical information, advancing a theme which he argues, in line with the views of E
