there are three levels of survivors: a small group, a large group, and a ragtag group. you can also play the game as any one of these three groups.. why this is the game of the year? they killed it! as soon as i got the game, i told my parents "we are playing left 4 dead 2 today!". i do agree, about you need to find something to play, but the point is that nexus utm you have to pay for its infrastructure and that game its hard to get stuff but its hard to find you need money to get it, but its better for me, i played 3 previous metros and utm is epic, in each one you need to pay for shit, but those games they are good, and the working out progress with their serie so they are good, and my suggestion is try them in order to find what you like in them, but mt is the better, always, and say same for cr is awesome, and tutu is awesome, so play them all on order to find what you like how to get $10 more damage for a shot. rolled it on both legs and then it was a thing of beauty. was like checking how it would break and then it just kept on rolling and just fucked my entire body. thanks for posting this drill. it's nice to see a video review on this site as well as youtube. did you notice i played this game on xbox one xl recently?. when did this game and this site really debut? in the early 2000s? another thing, i noticed another user mentioned in this comment thread that the video review guy keeps mentioning violence etc. do you still need to get caught up in that mind set to play this game and post on your website? i'm speaking for both myself and my fiance. 5ec8ef588b
